

Former H+D site

Project description:

Exploration and cleaning of an old contaminated site (soil interspersed with scrap /deposits, underground contamination with volatile hydrocarbons, chlorofluorohydrocarbons, aromatic hydrocarbons, mineral oils) as general contractor at a lump sum price

Services:

- Soil and ground water exploration
- Cleanup concept
- Approval/execution planning
- Site management/technical site management Excavation and disposal
Underground cleanup by means of air flushing of soil

Customer benefits:

- Cost certainty
- Success guarantee Redevelopment and authority management from one source

Project name:

Former H+D site

Country:

Germany

Location:

Heidelberg

Customer:

Theo Kleiner GmbH, Pirmasens

Contact:

Mr Czech, Tel. (0 62 41) 95 94-0

Reason:

Change of ownership and site development

Contract value:

750,000 €

Project duration:

01.2000 – 12.2004

Service area:

General contractor

Project data:

- Excavation and disposal of contaminated soil, approx. 3,000 m³
- 5 contamination areas to be cleaned by means of 6 combined air flushing /ground water measuring points during continued operation
- Ground water monitoring and exploration